

5th Annual Table Topics • Native Plant Gardening Basics

New Date and Location!

Thursday, April 20, 2017 • 6:00-6:30 pm—Social | 6:30-8:30 pm—Program
Diamond Lake Lutheran Church • 5760 Portland Ave S, Minneapolis MN

TABLE TOPICS is an opportunity to gather information and discuss a variety of topics—from site and soil preparation, plant selection, garden maintenance, creating wildlife habitat, and managing invasive species.

Landscaping with Native Trees and Shrubs

Erik Olsen, Outback Nursery & Landscaping

Planting a Pollinator Garden

Vicki Bonk, Nokomis Naturescape Coordinator

Where to Begin: Converting Lawns to Native Plants/Gardens

Nathalie Shanstrom, Pasque Ecological Design

Tough Plants for Tough Spaces: Creating Thriving Eco-Gardens in Challenging Spaces

Roxanne Stuhr, True Nature Design

Creating Wildlife Habitat in your Yard

Liz Stanley, Bloomington Homeowner

Managing Gardens without Chemicals

Julia Vanatta, Co-President of Wild Ones Twin Cities

Landscaping Options and Rain Gardens for Managing Wet Areas

Craig Stark, EcoScape Sustainable Landscaping

Coming to a Prairie Near You! Recognizing and Removing Terrestrial Invasives

Dawn Littleton, Invasive Plants Program Coordinator, University of Minnesota Extension

Help kick off our 11th ANNUAL PLANT SALE at the April Table Topics Meeting!

And join us on Tuesday, May 16th for a presentation by Dr. Rebecca Montgomery from the University of Minnesota:

BACKYARD PHENOLOGY: Tracking Nature's Cycles and Seasons in a Changing Climate

6:30 pm Social | 7:00 pm Program at Wood Lake Nature Center, 6710 Lake Shore Dr S, Richfield MN • All meetings are FREE and OPEN to the PUBLIC